

TABLE ONTARIO ELECTION 2007

1. Below are grades given to candidates by the Canadian Islamic Congress Political Action Committee (CICPAC).
2. Candidates were graded only in the 51 ridings where Muslims represent a sizable percentage.
3. Ridings are listed in descending order of their Muslim population percentage – ranging from about 15% to about 3%.
4. Only grades of "A" (excellent) or "F" (unsatisfactory) indicated in the table below -- a blank indicates "B" (satisfactory).
5. A candidate's grade evaluation is based on: i) his/her political views and track record related to seven key issues, 40%, ii) party leadership, 30%; and iii) party policies, 30%.
6. The following seven issues were considered in grading candidates:
  - i) The spread of Islamophobia;
  - ii) Education -- including school safety and equal funding for all Ontario schools;
  - iii) Health care;
  - iv) Immigration and integration -- including retraining and/or accreditation of foreign-educated professionals;
  - v) The environment;
  - vi) Care available to seniors; and
  - vii) Job losses in the manufacturing sector.
7. On their party policies, both the PC and the NDP received an "A" grading, while the Liberals were given an "F".
8. On quality of leadership, the PC party earned "A," the NDP received "B," and the Liberals were given an "F".
